In this lightly taxed community about whose happy freedom from the imposts levied on other colonies, we have heard, from time time, so much, we observe by the Gazette that e above are the largest Dooks in China, and ing and Water rates has just been made they are fitted with every appliance in the way The Police rate is fixed at ten and a quarter of Caissons, powerful Steam, Pumps, &c., to per cent, on houses in the City of Victoria, the Highting rate at one-and-a-half, and the Water rate at two per cent. Altogether for the purposes enumerated a rate of thirteen and three-quarters per cent, on the annual value of house property is to be charged in Hongkong. Moreover, it will be remembered that the rate is not levied here on "s rating value" below the actual value as in England, but on the rents actually paid, from cumstances. We have heard of a case, in ness in Jervois-street. which certain mercantile premises are paid
